

Jacob, Melinda

---

Subject: FW: mad monk
Attachments: May 3.docx

From: Kenneth Sarachan [kenmadmonk@gmail.com]
Sent: Friday, May 03, 2013 3:56 PM
To: Powell, Greg
Subject: mad monk

The Mad Monk Center for Anachronistic Media

On the Haste side of the building will be a vinyl record store with LPs; Rasputin's will move all of its vinyl records to this location.

There will also be a specialty book store; with a medium sized collection of politics, poetry, small press, ecology, history, and current events.

The other half of the building will mainly accommodate a restaurant called the COMMISSAR. This will consist of upscale peasant's and worker's food as was prepared in a book that I located several years ago. The recipes are primarily vegetarian/ world vegetarian prepared in a manner that would suit a discriminating Soviet Official's culinary tastes.

There will be a stage that has different events on different nights of the week:

Monday	Open Mike or Author Readings
Tuesday	Politics; Local or International
Wednesday	Poetry Readings or Poetry Slam
Thursday	Indie Rock or Folk Rock Bands
Friday	Reggae or Jazz Bands
Saturday	Comedy Club
Sunday	TBD

Ken Sarachan