to whom it may concern:

I have asked this rootless white Americans to pay what they owe to me for more than two years. Today the bastards have sent me a letter saying that they want to put me in jail which is either because they are playing God (الله) for me in which case they can go kiss a pig Ass, or as usual they are saying they will do what they please because they have the power to do it.

I am therefore going to do to them what they deserve; I have bought some carrots which I am going to stick in their ass so they may know all the properties of carrots from now on.
